

St. Petersburg Struck by Rioting

NEWSROOM NOTES — "Pious falsehoods," the theologians used to call them — fiction presented as fact in order to drive home a moral lesson or impress unbelievers.

The credulous and superstitious Middle Ages saw the wholesale production of fabricated miracles and historical events that never happened. But our own scientific and enlightened day is not without them.

The story about six students in Pennsylvania who were blinded by the sun while under the influence of LSD is a modern pious falsehood.

It evidently was conceived with the best of intentions — to warn against the dangers of this powerful, mind-altering drug. Presumably, it could have happened, for there are other cases on record of youths diving out of windows or running into traffic while in LSD-induced deliriums.

But the trouble with pious falsehoods is that, when they are exposed, they have the opposite effect from what was intended. Learning that the blindness incident was a hoax, many young people may wonder how much truth there is in any of the stories they have heard about LSD, or any of the other drugs currently popular in hip-land.

Each new generation of youth goes through a phase of rebellion against the values of its parents, but today's young people are especially impatient with what they consider to be their elders' gullibility and hypocrisy.

They want not rules but reasons for those rules — in drugs, sex behavior, social conduct, citizenship, everything. And if they are given no reasons, or if they feel that the reasons are insufficient, they do not hesitate to break the old rules and write new ones.

In the matter of drugs, for example, they want to know why possession or sale of LSD, if it is so dangerous, is only a misdemeanor but for marijuana it is a felony. Receiving no answer, they are experimenting with both.

This is a questioning and questioning generation which, wisely or unwisely, simply will not buy the pious falsehoods that may have frightened or satisfied less sophisticated youths in the past. It demands hard facts upon which it can build its code of behavior, not dogmatic prohibitions or ready-made ethics decreed from above.

If young people are as intelligent as they seem to be, they are not likely to make too many mistakes — if only they are given the facts.

Chicago Cabbies Strike

CHICAGO (UPI) — A strike against Chicago's two largest cab companies began at 12:01 a.m. today, with the Democratic National Convention opening in nine days.

If not settled by Aug. 26, the convention's opening day, 5,244 delegates and alternates will be unable to use 3,600 cabs—leaving 900 cabs of smaller companies to take up the slack.

Convention officials, however, have arranged for 125 buses and courtesy cars to take delegates and alternates from hotels to the International Amphitheatre, the convention hall.

Negotiations Collapse
Negotiations between the cab companies and the union—Local 777 of the Democratic Union Organizing Committee, an affiliate of the Seafarers' International Union (AFL-CIO)—collapsed Friday.

Federal mediator Sam Mazza said the two sides reached "a very serious impasse" on a new three-year contract. The union wants drivers to be paid 50 per cent of their fares, instead of the current 42½ to 47½ per cent.

The company reportedly has offered up to 49 per cent.

Mazza said he would "get in touch with both sides and, if they want to talk, I'll be glad to talk with them. If they want to go to the mayor (Richard J. Daley) for mediation, we'll be happy with that."

The union represents 5,400 drivers and 600 garage mechanics.

Makes Changes
After Friday's negotiations broke off, union leaders charged the cab companies had "locked out" drivers before the strike began by "taking the cabs off the streets two days ago."

The firms said that no driver who wanted a cab was refused one, and said, "The situation is hopeless. The union just kept raising its price."

A Yellow Cab driver still on the streets at 1:15 a.m. today said he had received no official notification that the strike was on.

Look to Our Leader, Governor Sam

Dr. John C. Watson, Jacksonville, left, director of Department of Registration and Education, turns the attention of county and regional Democratic candidates to a huge picture of Gov. Sam Shapiro, along with Atty. Gen. William Clark who is running for the U.S. Senate, head up the state Democratic ticket. Others pictured from the left of Shapiro, are John Brechon, for circuit clerk; Pat Jones, for coroner; William Callahan, Ottawa, for State Senate; Rep. Robert E. Brinkmeier, Forreton, incumbent for State House of Representatives, and Donald F. Burke, chairman, County Democratic Central Committee.

We Are Still Trying To Get Ready for Atomic Age: Watson

DR. JOHN C. WATSON

By ROBERT NELLIS

With the spell-binding abilities of a fired-up preacher, which he is, Dr. John C. Watson told about 200 county Democrats the atomic age was ushered in 16 years ago and that "we are still trying to get ready for it."

The state director of the Department of Registration and Education who fills a pulpit every Sunday told a cheering audience that "kids today have an above-average intelligence compared to the present elder generation which has the responsibility to build a world for these youngsters to live in which has developed along the lines of the 150 years of progress under Democratic administrations of Jackson, Wilson, Roosevelt, Truman and Lyndon Johnson."

In regard to the President, Dr. Watson declared, "today I have as much faith in LBJ as I did in 1964."

The state director pointed to 1908 as a turning point in the industrial revolution in Europe and America. Then he asserted, "the body of knowledge known to man in 1908 has multiplied eight times in the 60 years from 1908 to 1968."

If Watson sounded out a Democratic issue when he deplored the condition of highways throughout the state and blamed a Republican-controlled State Senate for tying up road projects, the Republicans and the Democrats will have one issue in common, the difference being who is to blame.

Candidates of the GOP charged in primary races that the Kerney administration is guilty of not following through on a road program for eight years.

From rather soft-sell platitudes about the rapidity of change, the need to evaluate and keep up with changing conditions, and the necessity of more education to equip the nation's young to meet the challenges, Dr. Watson took off the gloves and thundered criticism at the Republican slate nominees.

VC Border Attack Stopped by Allies

By JACK WALSH

SAIGON (UPI)—Allied troops threw back a wave of nationwide attacks, killing 519 Communists in battling that carried to North Vietnam's border and ended a comparative lull in fighting, military spokesmen said today.

The guerrillas launched at least five major assaults against U.S. and South Vietnamese troops Thursday and Friday. All were thrown back. The heaviest battling raged throughout South Vietnam's northern frontier, where the allies reported 378 Communists killed in eight fights.

Ending speculation the Communists purposely were holding down the level of fighting, the battles carried into the Demilitarized Zone (DMZ) separating the two Vietnams and to the North Vietnamese border at the Ben Hai River.

That drive alone, spearheaded by U.S. Marine tanks, killed 215 North Vietnamese soldiers who had been infiltrating through the buffer strip into South Vietnam, U.S. spokesmen said.

Captured Documents
Their orders, captured documents showed, were to attack allied border outposts Thursday night. Instead, decimated by tanks and divebombers, they fled back into the North. Four government soldiers were killed and 50 wounded in the all-day battle.

The seven other battles throughout South Vietnam's northern tier cost the Communists 163 dead. Spokesmen said 25 Americans died and 201 were wounded.

In the costly Communist attack, the guerrillas lobbed between 150 and 200 mortar rounds on a U.S. base camp near Quang Tri City, South Vietnam's northernmost provincial capital, and followed with a heavy ground assault. Spokesmen said the Ameri-

Police Restore Order With Use of Tear Gas

By JOHN ROSS

(UPI)—Young Negroes, spilling from a dance hall, smashed windows, set fires and burglarized stores in this Gulf Coast resort city early today. Police fired barrages of tear gas to restore order.

Patrolmen and sheriff's deputies, armed with submachine guns and bayonet-tipped shotguns, sealed off a 10 to 15 block area in the Negro district and began clearing the streets of roving vandals.

Calm Restored
At around 5 a.m. EDT, four hours after the melee started with rock throwing at a liquor store near the dance hall, police chief Harold C. Smith said

"comparative calm has been restored."

At least 10 persons were arrested on charges of breaking and entering and looting, officers said. Smith said he had no reports of injury or death.

One policeman was overcome by tear gas and was taken to a hospital emergency room for treatment. He was not considered in serious condition.

Shots Fired
Police said officers fired no shots. Authorities said, however, that shots were being fired in the district by civilians.

At the height of the melee, the National Guard was alerted for possible use in the disturbance and Gov. Claude Kirk kept abreast of the situation from Tallahassee.

Tear gas barrages were fired by police to disperse crowds that gathered on 16th and 22nd Streets and patrol cars roamed the area announcing over loudspeakers:

"This has been declared a riot area—clear the streets and go home or be arrested."

UPI photographer Jack Belich said the streets of the neighborhood in south St. Petersburg had an "eerie look" as tear gas rose into the mercury street lamps.

Liquor Stolen
The disturbance started when youths left a dance hall and started throwing rocks at a nearby liquor store.

Bottles of liquor were taken after the windows were smashed.

Storm Causes Minor Damage

Crews of workmen for Commonwealth Edison Co. were busy all night repairing damage from thunderstorms that snuffed out electricity in Dixon and several area communities. Power has been completely restored to the Dixon area, according to a utilities spokesman.

Damage in the area was scattered but not severe. The storm hit Freeport, Rockford and Belvidere the hardest. A few branches were reported down but damage did not extend beyond that.

Workmen are still on the job in the Rockford area and were expected to be finished near noon today, the spokesman said. At its worst, the storm damaged a few spirits rather than lives or property in this area.

Ike Has Seventh Heart Attack; 'Irregular Heart Action' Is Causing 'Increasing Concern'

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Former President Eisenhower, suffering from his seventh heart attack, lapsed into unconsciousness twice during the night and doctors had to revive him.

A 10 a.m. EDT medical bulletin said Eisenhower suffered no brain damage because of the lapses but his "irregular heart action" is causing "increasing concern."

Doctors at Walter Reed General Hospital said the general in the past 17 hours since his latest attack had sustained "two episodes of rapid irregular heart action (ventricular fibrillation). Both episodes were terminated by electrical means (defibrillation)."

The medical bulletin said Eisenhower was "briefly unconscious during both episodes, but regained consciousness immediately, is alert, and has no evidence of brain damage."

Receives Medication
"In addition to the above treatment," the bulletin added, "he is also receiving continuous medication directed at maintaining normal heart rhythm. He has received oxygen continuously."

"His suite is fully equipped to handle all medical contingencies."

The announcement said members of the immediate family, including the general's wife, Mamie, were remaining at Walter Reed.

"Mrs. Eisenhower visits at the bedside frequently in response to the general's requests," the bulletin said.

"A team of doctors and nurses is in constant attendance," the bulletin said. "The occurrence of these episodes of irregular heart action is of increasing concern to his physicians."

Eisenhower's physicians were watchful as the 77-year-old general underwent the critical period of his second serious heart attack in 11 days.

The first announcement of his seventh attack at 4 p.m. EDT Friday reported his condition as "stable" and added: "The doctors interpret this episode as serious, but have not as yet appraised its full consequences."

Feeling Well

The hospital said that prior to Friday's seizure, Eisenhower "was feeling well, was in excellent spirits and had been progressing satisfactorily."

His wife, Mamie, staying in an adjoining suite, and son John were with him for at least some of the day.

The doctors used "serious" to describe the latest attack. The general's most recent seizures on June 15 and Aug. 6 were called "major."

In all, he has had seven heart attacks, four in the last four months.

The first of the latest series occurred on April 29 at Indian Wells, Calif., while Eisenhower was vacationing. He was brought to Walter Reed for convalescence and was about to be discharged when the June 15th attack came. He was almost fully recuperated from that one and on the point of going home when struck again Aug. 6.

Showed Improvement

Eisenhower had shown enough improvement since his attack Aug. 6 the issuance of hospital bulletins had been discontinued. In the first days following it, he was put on complete bed rest and a liquid diet taken orally. For the first several days he was administered oxygen continuously and his heart was monitored constantly by an electrocardiograph.

All the general's seizures have been classified as "myocardial infarctions." These occur when weaknesses in arteries serving the heart muscle itself lead to blockages that at least momentarily deprive a portion of the muscle of blood and oxygen, killing some of the muscle cells.

If enough functioning muscle remains to sustain heart action, the body goes to work repairing the damage.

U.S. Moves Ahead in Nuclear Arms Race

CAPE KENNEDY (UPI)—In a day of precision rocketry Friday, the United States established the foundation for a significant step ahead in the nuclear arms race and launched 13 satellites to boot.

The Defense Department laid the groundwork for boosting its nuclear striking power in the next decade five to ten fold by successfully test firing the two new missiles designed to carry multiple warheads.

The Space Agency orbited a new weather satellite, named Essa 7, from Vandenberg Air Force Base, Calif., and the Air Force followed up later in the day there by launching 12 small research satellites on a single Atlas-burner 2 rocket.

The missile activity opened here shortly before dawn when the Navy's new seabased Poseidon sent a dummy warhead speeding to an Atlantic Ocean target area 1,200 miles away.

Three hours later, the Air Force's sleek new Minuteman 3 "instant ICBM" roared from an underground silo and dropped what reportedly was an experimental version of the new multibomb warhead into a South Atlantic target area 5,000 miles away.

The Poseidon, which eventually will replace 496 Polaris missiles on 31 submarines, is expected to carry up to 10 nuclear explosives. Each Minuteman 3, scheduled to replace many of the 1,000 older Minuteman 1s and 2s now deployed, will carry three larger hydrogen bombs.

Before either missile will be ready to join the nation's combat-ready strategic forces, it must undergo a test program expected to last at least two years.

Miss Merrick Is Bride of Jerome Cook

Nuptial vows were exchanged at 10 a.m. Saturday in St. Patrick's Catholic Church, by Miss Anna Louise Merrick, daughter of the Edwin Merricks, Dixon, and Jerome William Cook, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cook, Glen Ellyn.

Officiating clergymen for the ecumenical service were Rev. William Boland, pastor of the church, and Rev. David Carlisle, assistant pastor of the First United Methodist Church.

John Stanley Smith, organist for the double-ring ceremony, accompanied James Wiltz as he sang "The Lord's Prayer," "Ave Maria" and "Now Joined by God in Holy Love," and decorations featured altar arrangements of white gladioli and sprays of gladioli florets and spengri attached to the church pews.

Bride's Gown

For her wedding, Saturday's bride chose a floor-length princess gown fashioned of white silk linen and re-embroidered Venetian lace. The gown's ring collar and elbow-length sleeves were accented by lace trim, and her fingertip bridal veil of silk illusion was held by a lace and linen crown. The cameo brooch she wore was a gift from the bridegroom, and as she was escorted to the altar by her father, she carried a classic cascade of phalaenopsis orchids and ivy.

Mrs. Scott Rosenke, Macomb, who attended the bride as matron of honor, was attired in a full-length princess gown of lime-green silk linen designed with a scooped neckline and brief sleeves, and identically styled gowns of royal blue silk linen were worn by the bridesmaids, Miss Margaret Watt, Springfield, and Miss Carolyn Schott, Lime green and royal blue Dior bows were their head-dresses, and their rose pendants were gifts from the bride. White roses, spengri and spring-green baby's breath were combined in their cascading bouquets.

Miss Mary Colleen McPherson, junior bridesmaid, and the flower girls, Miss Karen Summark and Miss Aline Brooks, wore frocks of lime-green silk linen similar to those worn by the attendants, and their gifts from the bride were silver heart-shaped pendants. Miss McPherson carried a nosegay of spengri and white roses, and spengri garlands carried by the flower girls were placed on the altar.

The bride's gown and those worn by all her attendants were designed and created by Mrs. Darwin Slain.

Church Women Plan Meeting

The Park Manor Baptist Church Women's Missionary Union has scheduled a meeting for 7 p.m. Monday in the church when a business session will be conducted by the president, Mrs. George Staley.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Phelps greeted guests as they arrived for the ceremony, and ushering was done by the bridegroom's brother, Harry Cook II, Villa Park. Participating as best man was William P. Durow, Lombard; groomsmen were Carl J. Getto, Elmhurst, and Thomas J. Berrek, Berwyn, and the ceremonial ringbearer was Andrew Johns.

The sheath of melon-color linen worn by Mrs. Merrick for her daughter's wedding, was complemented by a hat fashioned of multi-color flowers, and the bridegroom's mother chose a blue A-line knit frock and a pastel blue marabou hat. Their flowers were shoulder corsages of green glamelias and foliage, and white glamelia corsages were worn by the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Henry Leydig, and the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. Paul Rusnak.

Reception

Smilax garlands centered the tables arranged for a reception and wedding luncheon held at Emerald Hill Country Club following the ceremony when Mrs. Robert Browne, Mr. and Mrs. George Holland and Lawrence Leydig acted as hosts.

Decorating the bride's table were the spengri garlands which had been removed from the church altar and transported to the reception, and a separate table held a tiered wedding cake prepared by Mrs. Raymond Levan. The cake, topped by a cluster of white roses and stephanotis and encircled at the base by a spengri wreath, was served by Miss Ann Malen, Sycamore, and Miss Mary Nichols, and entertainment featured music by William Worley, pianist.

Souvenir packets of rice, made by Mrs. Theodore McPherson, were distributed during the reception by Bradley Hayenga and Mary Colleen McPherson.

For their wedding trip to the Lake of the Ozarks in Missouri, the bride wore a traveling ensemble of blue linen and a corsage of phalaenopsis orchids and ivy. A 1964 Dixon High School graduate, she attended the University of Illinois as a B.A. degree in June. A member of Kappa Delta Pi professional society, she will be employed as an English instructor in the Winona Senior High School, Winona, Minn., where they will be residing at 728 E. Third St.

Mr. Cook graduated in 1964 from St. Francis High School, Wheaton, and is enrolled as a senior at Saint Mary's College, Winona.

Guests

Guests attending their wedding and reception were from Dixon, Glen Ellyn, Champaign, Calumet City, Elmhurst, Lockport, Lombard, Freeport, Wheaton, Deerfield, Berwyn, Oak Park, Rochelle, Sterling, Amboy and from Memphis, Tenn.; Hammond, Ind.; Cleveland and Forest, Ohio.

A Friday night wedding rehearsal dinner hosted by the bridegroom's parents in Lee's Lounge, Lincoln Manor, preceded a garden party at the Merrick home when hosts included Mr. and Mrs. Elwin Glessner and Mrs. Chester Clausen, and a decorated cake was served by Mrs. Richard Smith as punch was poured by Miss Dora Ebersole.

A recent series of parties honoring the bride included a shower arranged by her attendants, Miss Schott and Miss Watts, and her housemother at the University of Illinois, Mrs. E. S. Wells.

An additional shower was given by Mrs. Rosenke, and guests were entertained by Mrs. Harry Cook II, Villa Park, at a linen shower when the refreshment table held a replica of a wedding cake fashioned of white towels.

Mrs. Thomas Anderson, Rockford, and Mrs. Elsie Carter were also co-hostesses at an Aug. 3 personal shower and luncheon at Emerald Hill Country Club.

GOP candidates. Of Dirksen, Watson quoted Mayor Richard J. Daley, Chicago, whom he said declared, "we like to win the hard ones like Truman in 1948."

The state director emphasized there is not peace in the Republican ranks "as they want it to appear on the outside."

He reported that Richard B. Ogilvie, Republican for governor, did not run well downstate against a downstate candidate and he will do no better in November against another downstate, Gov. Sam Shapiro.

"In my own precinct in Jacksonville," Dr. Watson reported, "John Henry Altorfer got seven times as many votes as Ogilvie did."

The preacher warmed up to his subject as he thundered, the score is 36 to 0 in favor of the Democrats if you add up the years of legislative experience Shapiro and Paul Simon have and compare that to the years Ogilvie and Robert Dwyer have been in the General Assembly.

Dr. Watson credited Gov. Kerner with setting up a new department of business and economic development; the children's and family service, increased state aid to schools during the eight-year period more than that increased in any other state in the Union, and development of the network of junior colleges.

The part-time preacher boasted the Democratic Party has a Negro candidate for state office, the first in history slated by either party. She is Fannie G. Jones, East St. Louis, candidate for clerk of the Supreme Court.

"I want to set another thing straight," Dr. Watson asserted. "Gov. Sam Shapiro is not a patsy for anybody, not Mayor Daley, nor James A. Roman, chairman, State Democratic Central Committee."

On foreign policy Dr. Watson's remarks fit in line with the Johnson administration's policy in Vietnam.

In closing Dr. Watson exhorted, "the greatest need in the state of Illinois is to get some Democrats in the Lee County Courthouse."

The darling of the evening was Rep. Brinkmeier, the only person who received a standing ovation when being introduced. He also brought the cheering crowd to its feet as he closed a short speech.

Other candidates introduced who spoke briefly were John Brechon, for circuit court clerk; Patrick Jones, for coroner, and William Callahan, Ottawa, for state senator, 36th District. Donald F. Burke, chairman, County Democratic Committee, was master of ceremonies.

Awarded Contract

The George Lindquist Construction Co. was awarded the $411,403 contract for the new addition at Thome School, Rock Falls, which also includes fire safety work on all elementary schools.

The contract calls for major remodeling work to meet fire-safety requirements at Thome, Dillon, Merrill and the Rock Falls Junior High School.

Construction work is expected to begin in the near future.

State Police Probe Area Auto Accidents

Claude L. Meners, 42, West Frankfort, was cited by State Police, Friday evening, for failure to reduce speed to avoid an accident following a two car accident on U.S. 51, one half mile north of the Flagg Center Road.

Vehicles driven by Ernest R. Stewart, 66, Rochelle and Meners were traveling north on the highway, when Stewart stopped his vehicle to make a left turn.

Meners was unable to stop his auto and crashed into the rear of the Stewart vehicle, Police said.

No injuries resulted from the incident.

Mary L. Lower, 20, Princeton was treated and released from Perry Memorial Hospital in Princeton early this morning following a one-car accident on Ill. 26, eight miles south of the U.S. 30 intersection.

State Troopers report the Low-er vehicle was apparently south-bound on Ill. 26, when the auto left the roadway on the east side, traveled 300 feet before attempting to return to the road, then swerved back onto the road and off the west side of the highway going through a fence owned by William Carey R.R. 1 Amboy, and striking a Commonwealth Edison utility pole.

State Police ticketed the driver of the Lower vehicle for failure to reduce speed to avoid an accident following an investigation of the incident.

David L. Lauritzen, 21, Walnut, was ticketed for traveling too fast for conditions early today after, according to police reports, his vehicle went out of control and struck a post at the junction of Ill. 84 and Ill. 136 near Fulton.

Fire Calls

KINGS — The Rochelle Fire Department was summoned to the Fred Groen residence here Friday at 11 p.m. where fire struck, gutting the interior of the building. Investigations are underway to determine the cause of what Rochelle Fire Chief William Lower termed an "interior fire."

The fire was reported by an unidentified neighbor since the Groen family was away at the time of the fire. The two story home was completely destroyed; the wooden frame is still standing.

Firemen were assisted by the Lindenwood water tank and the California Packing Co. water tank.

Mr. and Mrs. Groen stayed in a motel overnight and their four children stayed with friends after returning to their home.

Shades of Macbeth
Shakespeare "buffs" will recall that in "Macbeth" it took an army to move Birnam Forest to Dunsinane. # This Week's News—Around the World

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Citizens who complained of a lack of excitement at the Republican national convention welcomed signs this week that there will be more kicking, biting and scratching when the Democrats meet in Chicago Aug. 26.

Meanwhile Richard M. Nixon, the GOP nominee, sought to heal party wounds inflicted in behind-the-scenes maneuvering at Miami Beach. Of particular concern were pained feelings among some Negro leaders and Republican liberals unhappy with the nomination of Maryland's Gov. Spiro T. Agnew for vice president.

On the Democratic side, Gov. Lester Maddox of Georgia told delegates of his state he had decided to seek the nomination because he thought the convention should have a chance to "vote for a conservative candidate." The development could threaten previous more or less solid Southern support for Hubert H. Humphrey.

Sen. Eugene McCarthy of Minnesota took one of his more direct slaps at the Johnson-Humphrey administration by naming Sen. J. W. Fulbright of Arkansas as a man he would like to see become Secretary of State. Fulbright, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations committee, has been a bitter critic of administration policy in Vietnam.

Sen. George S. McGovern of South Dakota, 11th hour entry into the race for the Democratic nomination, said he would find it hard to say no if offered a chance to run for vice president. McGovern, whose views on Vietnam are similar to McCarthy's, continued however to seek delegate support for the top spot.

Front runner Humphrey paid little attention to either of his party rivals, concentrating instead on Nixon.

Humphrey described southern supporters of Nixon as "Nixie-crats"—a reference to the nominee's support by Sen. Strom Thurmond, who spun off from the Democratic party to oppose Harry S. Truman as the Dixiecrat standard-bearer in 1948.

A serious Democratic storm in advance of the convention centered around challenges to delegates from up to 15 states. The challenges will be heard by the Credentials Committee next week, but the prospect of an explosive floor fight at the convention itself was not ruled out.

In Chicago, police fearing racial disorders said they planned to seal off an area about a mile square surrounding the International Amphitheatre, scene of the convention.

Backers of George C. Wallace, former governor of Alabama, running as a third party candidate, said he had so far qualified to have his name on the ballot in 38 states.

Secretary of Defense Clark M. Clifford, updating the U.S. stance in Vietnam, said a halt in bombing of the North must await some assurance from Hanoi that it would refrain from using such a lull to step up assaults on U.S. forces.

"All they have to do," he said, "is get word to us that they have reduced the level of combat and that they will continue to reduce the level of combat, and that constitutes a de-escalatory step, and that we could then get on with the substantive negotiations in Paris."

In Paris, Ambassador Xuan Thuy, North Vietnam's chief negotiator at the peace talks, declared that three months of meetings with the U.S. delegation "have achieved no result whatsoever."

On Thursday, a helicopter carrying youngsters and adults to the Disneyland amusement park near Compton, Calif., broke apart in flight and plunged to earth, killing all 21 aboard.

It was the second crash of a Disneyland-bound helicopter in three months. The first, on May 22, killed 23.

President Johnson, recently disclosed to be suffering from an ailment known as diverticulosis, or intestinal pouching, was reported by his doctors to be otherwise in good condition.

In a Houston speech, the president said he thought America too was in pretty good shape, on the whole.

"America, I believe, is essentially healthy," Johnson told the National Medical Association, a predominantly Negro doctors group.

"America is getting healthier. Because we have known that our remedies are taking hold, we must work harder than ever toward our goals." He said these included jobs, homes, education and good health for all, without racial discrimination.

In Greece, a dynamite bomb blew up near the car of Premier George Papandopoulos, strong man of the military regime, but he escaped injury. Arrested and accused of the attempted assassination was a 31-year-old army deserter.

Ho, U.S. Ally in '40s, Used Aid To Grab Viet

By RAY CROMLEY
HONG KONG (NEA) — This reporter's own personal knowledge of Ho Chi Minh's activities came in World War II.
Ho arranged to have his underground organization work for U.S. military agencies.
While this reporter was concerned with operations in China, not Indochina, in World War II, he had close contact with American military men who were first-hand observers of Ho's activities at that time.
Ho's men were used to trail watchers to report on the movement of Japanese vehicles, arms and troops, and as coast watchers to report on the movement of Japanese ships.
His men were also used to aid U.S. Air Corps pilots and crewmen forced down or shot down in Japanese-occupied areas of northern French Indochina. Ho's principal mission in this field was to help these Americans get out of Japanese territory into nonoccupied areas of China.
Ho's men were charged with some sabotage operations against the Japanese. Ho also promised to conduct guerrilla war against the Japanese rear if given sufficient arms.
To accomplish this promised guerrilla activity, Ho was given considerable amounts of U.S. equipment and supplies — considering the size of his force.
These included rifles, light machine guns, portable radios and an array of other military goods. It is understood, for example, that he was given several hundred American light machine guns.
Ho, however, made very little use of these weapons and ammunition against the Japanese.
Instead, he used this armament largely to

Pope, Birth Control Stir Alienation

By DAVID POLING
"What do you think about the Pope's statement on birth control?" is the question that dominates conversations between Protestants and Catholics these days. My own reaction is sorrow. For, next to the hydrogen bomb, the population explosion is the most serious threat to world peace.
Crowded, hungry people are living in misery and despair in so many countries. Without family planning, we are faced with mass starvation and increased world tensions. The poor need to be able to regulate the spacing of their children as well as the size of their families. To have the leading religious personality in the world tell them that this is sinful is just one more burden to be carried.
On the other hand, the affluent, well-educated Roman Catholic couldn't care less what the Vatican says about birth control. Long ago he discovered that many of his priest friends are in frequent dissent with church authorities over celibacy, parochial education and use of the Pill. Countless Catholic families have worked out their own philosophy of life—which they believe to be Christian—that includes family planning.
The Pope's statement comes after five years of deliberation. During that time, many within the church expected a progressive document, showing the hierarchy to be sensitive to the currents of change and upheaval in the world scene. An outstanding advisory committee had produced a thoughtful report, recommending new directions for the moral theologians as they faced scientific advance in contraceptives.
Instead, Pope Paul VI moved the church toward the 18th century at a time when his people are almost in the 21st!

As a result, three things have happened in less than a month:
1—A new separation between the Holy Father and his flock. Almost daily we read of committees and conferences that have registered their dissent within the Catholic Church. A constant stream of communications has flowed from Rome to remind the faithful of their obedience. This confirms our feeling that a spiritual rebellion is in the offing. In New York City, Archbishop Terrence J. Cooke has just released a pastoral letter urging the congregations to "receive faithfully" Pope Paul's encyclical on birth control. The archbishop acknowledges the difficulties that were being faced by married couples. To help them in obedience, he suggested that they "receive the sacraments often."
2—A new uneasiness between the Vatican and the major branches of the Christian Church. In London, the bishops attending the 10th Lambeth Conference took strong issue with the papal encyclical. Meeting every 10 years, the 250 bishops represented Anglican churches in some 50 countries. Over the years, the Anglican communion has considered itself a bridge

Dear Ann:

By ANN LANDERS

Dear Readers: Recently a 14-year-old girl asked, "Why can't girls be paper boys?" She pointed out that girls were very big as realiable as boys, that they needed the extra money, just as boys do, and that many girls help their brothers by carrying their papers when brother is ill. "It seems unfair," the young girl wrote, "that we should be shut out of this field. Please tell me the reason for this."
I admitted I didn't know the answer and put the question to the circulation managers around the country. I received hundreds of answers and learned, to my surprise, that in some areas girls are permitted to be paper "boys."
But in most places they're not, and since rank hath its privileges, I am printing the letter from the president of the International Circulation Managers' Association, Mr. Leon S. Reed of Little Rock, Ark.
Dear Ann: You asked why can't girls be carrier boys? As president of a 70-year-old organization which represents over a million carrier salesmen, I would like to respond to your question.
There are many reasons, and I will cite a few:
Today's newspapers are big. Sunday's average is 1 1/2 pounds. It takes a strong boy to carry 100 papers. If a subscriber saw a 14-year-old girl carrying this load we'd get plenty of phone calls.
Many carrier salesmen must be on the drop corner at 4:45 a.m. They often stay out as late as 8 p.m. making collections. Many of the larger cities are not safe for a young girl at those hours.
There are also legal restrictions in some areas on girls doing such work.

Noel Grove Air Controller No Job for 1-Track Mind

WASHINGTON (NEA) — Ordinarily Jim Miller is a quiet, easy-going man from whom conversation and emotion register in low-octane, low-pressure readings.
"Some people," he says, with typical deliberateness, "tell me I talk slowly."
But when he's working as an air traffic controller at Washington's National Airport at a lively traffic hour, voice velocity easily matching a well-oiled disc jockey on the midmorning spin show.
"Piedmont 590 take the first exit off the runway. Air Force 28865 switch to ground control. National 465 clear for take-off. Cherokee 324 you're four miles from the airport and on final approach for runway 15." All in one breath.
"You learn to think of several different things at one time," says Miller, 35, throttling back to conversational speed. "This is no job for anyone with a one-track mind."
On an ordinary working day, Miller works five different jobs in traffic control, spending from one to two hours at each one. Mercifully, a tough job is usually followed by an easier one.
On the 7 a.m.-to-3 p.m. shift one day recently, Miller began in the radar room. The radar men sort out the planes, which show as blips on the radar screens, and guide them in one at a time for an approach to the airport.
There may be 60-70 blips on the screen at a time at National. The radar controllers shuffle them to keep them at least three miles apart or separated by a height of 1,000 feet.
A controller's nightmare is to see two blips merge, and then both disappear from the screen in the tragic event that both separations have somehow been neglected. It has never happened to Miller, nor to anyone else at National since he went to work there 11 years ago, despite the recent statement by a labor representative of the controllers that overwork is causing an average of five near-misses a day at National.
For Miller's first position of the day, he settles in front of a screen to handle approaches of military aircraft to nearby Andrews' air space spills over into National's, so the National controllers handle approaches for the military men as well, until they can turn them over to their own tower.
It is a soft job this early, since Andrews traffic does not thicken until later. In an hour's time, Miller guides in only four or five early birds. He passes the time with talk and a few laughs with a coworker.
At 9:30 a.m., he alternates to another radar screen, this one handling planes coming into National from the east. Activity speeds up. Miller's face and voice remain calm, but the jokes stop. His eyes are glued to the screen as he plays a game of aerial chess in which the only checkmates are usually fatal.

"Allegheny 909, turn left at two-two-zero."
"Allegheny 909," a voice answers in his headset, "left at two-two-zero."
"National 425, descend to 6,000 feet."
"National 425," comes the echo, "leaving seven for six."
"Executive Jet 963, you're 12 miles from the airport on final approach, contact the tower."
They are angry tons of steel and combustible fuel loaded with fragile human bodies, cruising in a shrunken sky at better than 200 m.p.h. Interspersed with the big birds are smaller private planes, not bound by ground-given headings, avoiding other planes by visual lookout. "We take them first-come, first-served," say the controllers.
Miller informs an airline pilot that he has traffic in a one o'clock position from him, moving "what looks here like southeast."
Later . . . "We almost ran over him," says the pilot to Miller, with gentle sarcasm. "He was going southwest, not southeast."
"Well, it looked like he was going southeast on the screen," Miller answers apologetically.
The tension builds and Miller is glad to give up his seat after two hours. The tension, the urgency, "it's like that every day," he says as he drops out for lunch before moving from the radar room to the tower for his next position.
"But it's a funny thing about this business," he says, "you don't find many guys trying to hand off the tough jobs to someone else. The esprit de corps is such that most guys like the challenge. The attitude is more like, 'Let me get in there and see if I can clean up this mess.'"
Miller starts his afternoon in the tower with another cushy job, checking out flight plan clearance, then after an hour he moves to a position that is busier, but not tense. As ground controller he acts as traffic cop around the terminal ramps for planes on the ground.
Another hour passes and he moves to his last position of the day, the hotseat of the tower—local control. There he handles all incoming and outgoing traffic doing the actual landings and take-offs.
The mental gymnastics required to juggle them all boggles the untrained mind. At any one time the local controller

The Office of Price Administration ordered a price ceiling on potato chips today which will increase the cost to consumers 10 per cent per package.
50 YEARS AGO
On account of the numerous inquiries the U.S. Food Administration desires these facts be given to the public: all restrictions on the sale of ice cream cones have been withdrawn, wheatless days and wheatless meals have been terminated, beef regulations for public eating places have likewise been withdrawn. It is urged, however, that people use only beef from lightweight cattle.

Voice of The People

Dear Sir:
I would like to voice my opinion in regard to the water situation.
Have contacted the water department many times, all city officials that I thought would have some concern, also the Lee County Health Department.
Had to finally have a filter put on at considerable expense which has to be changed about every two months and still get rust and black at times and most always the bad odor and to me, and numerous people that I have talked with say it smells just like the sewer which is true.
The scouring and cleaning is endless.
We used to have such good water here, I can't understand what can be wrong and am one among many who wish it could be corrected.

LOOKING AROUND

By E. G.

Happy birthday to . . . Toni Myers, Amy and Andy Royster, the 18th . . . Jim Radke, Ellabeth Collins, Maxine Smith and Bryant Remrey, the 20th . . . Pierce Shaw, the 21st . . . Wendy Waffle and Gordon Brantley, the 22nd . . . Bob Warner, the 23rd.

Rob Vest Jr. and Ron Koesler have returned from a motor trip to Florida . . . spent three days at Daytona Beach — visited Rob's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Pitcher at Redington Beach — and stopped to see Rex Keeley at Clearwater.

Diane Potts, daughter of the Victor Potts, is filling a most rewarding and inspirational position as secretary to Richard M. Bueschel, aviation enthusiast and president of the Chicago advertising agency of Waldie & Briggs . . . a recent edition of the Chicago Daily News carried a review of his published book, "Chinese Communist Air Power" . . . authoritative information for the book came from the National Archives; New York Times Index; the 20 surviving members of the American Aviation Mission to China in 1932; British, French and American advisers to China in the 1920's; Chinese pilots of the Sino-Soviet War, and Chinese government officials now living in Taiwan . . . contacts by mail and phone were made around the world — the author's persistence paying off with not only a book — but photographs never before seen or published in the West . . . Diane, a DHS graduate of '65, helped to type the manuscript.

Walking on Cloud 9 . . . are the Grant Blanchettes of Grand Detour . . . their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Carter, Olyphant, Pa., presented them with a granddaughter, Rebecca Lynn, Monday, Aug. 12th . . . Mrs. Blanchette and son, Grant Jr., are now en route to view the new arrival.

"Success" publication says . . . "every American now owes at least $91 more, as his or her per capita share of the national debt, than a year ago . . . total debt now stands at $353 BILLION — $21 BILLION HIGHER than last year . . . It didn't just happen. Men whom you and your neighbors elected are responsible for the spending that is bankrupting us all." . . . and did you know that the average American worked more than four months this year to pay for government — local, state and federal . . . taxes took all we earned from January 1st to May 5th . . . How does that grab you?

And from the same source . . . "Tax the laborer, but be discreet . . . Tax the shoes right off his feet . . . Tax his bread, tax his meat . . . Oh, he's a common, common man . . . So tax him, tax him all you can . . . Tax his railroad, tax his ticket . . . Tax him 'til he wants to picket . . . Tax the farmer, tax his fowl . . . Tax his cow, tax his goat . . . Tax his pants, tax his coat . . . Tax his crop, tax his work . . . Tax his tie, tax his shirt . . . Tax his coffin, tax his grave . . . Tax the sod in which he lays . . . Even after he's gone, he won't relax . . . They'll still be after inheritance tax."

Posies to . . . The Sam Klamens, celebrating their 10th wedding anniversary — and Kay and Bill Stitzel, their 11th, today . . . Helen and Jim Merritt, their 18th, the 19th.

Just heard . . . that the portrait studies Lois Pierce did of William Tyne represent the last of her artistry — for awhile . . . Lois has not one but two broken wrists as a result of tripping over a garden hose . . . but some good did come from the unfortunate accident . . . Lois returns tomorrow from a California and Arizona recuperation visit with her daughters.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Higgs, 209 E. Everett, recently entertained with a picnic dinner at their summer home near Baraboo, Wisconsin . . . the occasion was in honor of a family gathering and included Mr. and Mrs. Duane Higgs and children Kieth, Mark and Julie of Security, Colorado — Mr. and Mrs. Don Higgs, Scott and Judy, coming from Cherry Hill, N.J. — and Mr. and Mrs. Dave Higgs, Pat, Tim and Kathleen, Dixon . . . all enjoyed visiting the Dells area during the week and Duane's and Don's families will be visiting Dixon before returning to their respective homes.

Tigers' Denny McLain Wins 25th, 4-0

Colts Edge Redskins On Michaels Fieldgoal

By STU CAMEN
UPI Sports Writer

The Baltimore Colts proved Friday night they still hold the "Indian sign" over the Washington Redskins.

Trailing 13-12 with only 25 seconds left to play, Baltimore's Lou Michaels booted a 23-yard field goal to give the Colts a 15-13 victory and their 10th straight win against the Redskins in National Football League pre-season play.

Michaels' winning kick was set up by some nifty passing on the part of rookie quarterback Terry Southall of Baylor, who was serving as backup signal caller for Johnny Unitas.

Southall began the Colts' final drive with slightly more than four minutes remaining on Baltimore's 19-yard line. He hit Jimmy Orr with a 13-yarder, connected on a 20-yarder with Don Alley and then found Orr again with a 25-yard toss that carried Baltimore to Washington's 23-yard line from where Michaels split the uprights.

Takes Lead

Washington had taken a 13-12 lead when Charley Taylor caught a four-yard scoring pass from Jim Ninowski late in the fourth quarter for the Redskins' only touchdown. Ninowski was subbing for regular quarterback Sonny Jurgensen, who is still recuperating from an off-season operation on his right elbow.

The Baltimore-Washington contest kicked off a busy weekend of pre-season games for both the National and American Leagues with five inter-league clashes on tap.

The AFL, winner of four of six battles against the older NFL in two weekends of exhibition activity, hopes to improve on that mark tonight when Minnesota (NFL) plays Denver (AFL), Philadelphia (NFL) battles Miami (AFL), Pittsburgh (NFL) takes on San Diego (AFL) and St. Louis NFL opposes Kansas City (AFL). On Sunday, New Orleans (NFL) will meet Houston (AFL). The AFL team is the home club in each case.

Two NFL games tonight have the New York Giants playing Atlanta at Nashville, Tenn., and Dallas at Los Angeles. On Sunday, Cleveland is to visit San Francisco, while on Monday night, Green Bay will be host to Chicago at Milwaukee in a nationally televised contest (CBS).

In the AFL tonight, Boston plays the New York Jets at Richmond, Va., and Buffalo visits Cincinnati.

Still Smarting

The AFL, still smarting from last season's 3-13 mark against the NFL in exhibition contests, sends Kansas City, San Diego and Houston out for their second wins against National League foes this year.

The Chiefs, victors over Minnesota last weekend, takes on the Cardinals in the first game of what is to become an annual battle for the Governor's Cup. Kansas City also boasted a win over Cincinnati while the Cardinals beat Pittsburgh in their only exhibition game.

San Diego, which beat San Francisco two weeks ago, faces the Steelers, who are without the services of five starters, sidelined by either injuries or military service.

The Oilers, winners over Washington in their first pre-season game, go up against the Saints, who beat Boston last week for the NFL's second inter-league victory. The other one belongs to Baltimore which beat Oakland.

SHAVING STROKES

Uphill and Downhill

Written for Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
Hitting uphill and downhill lies are similar in basic technique. In both instances, body framework assumes the same angle of the ground. Uphill, for example, the body rocks up and the swing is level, as if hitting from flat terrain.

On an uphill situation, more club is needed because the ball must be hit higher into the air than normal to gain loft.

In this year's National Open at Oak Hill in Rochester, N.Y., I had an uphill shot on the ninth hole of the second round. It was about 170 yards to the pin. Normally, this is a five-iron shot for me. But I used a four-iron to get on the green.

In this case, the green was also elevated. But had the green been level and my position been on the downhill side, I would have used a six-iron.

Cubs, Sox Baseball

By United Press International

No other team wins and loses so many games by so few runs as the Chicago White Sox.

They did it again Friday night in Cleveland, losing, as usual—this time to the Indians, 4-3.

The ninth place Chicagoans now have lost 70, won 49 and are 27½ games behind the American League-leading Detroit Tigers, who are eight games ahead of second-place Baltimore.

The Sox held on for 11 innings Friday night, but crumbled when Lou Johnson singled off reliever and knuckleballer Hoyt Wilhelm with the bases loaded. The hit drove in the winning run and gave the fourth-place Indians their 65th win against 58 defeats.

Pete Ward tied it at 3-3 for the Sox in the ninth when he hit a two-run homer with two out and sent the game into extra innings. Sandy Alomar drove in the Sox' first run in the second with a bases-loaded infield out.

Eddie Fisher took the victory, his fourth this season. Wilhelm suffered the loss, his fourth against two victories.

The Chicago Cubs, in a rut after the St. Louis Cardinals put them down two in a row earlier this week, lost again at home Friday, 11-7, at the hands of the Cincinnati Reds.

It was a smashing win for the fourth-place Reds, whose Mack Jones, Fred Whitfield, Jim Maloney and Leo Cardenas all poled home runs.

The Cubs managed two homers of their own, both two-runners by Randy Hundley and "Mr. Cub" Ernie Banks.

Jim Maloney took the win, his 11th against seven defeats. Starter and loser Bill Hands now has won 14 and lost seven.

The Cubs throw Ferguson Jenkins (13-11) against the Reds today, and Cincinnati counters with George Culver (9-12). The White Sox go with Dan Lazar

(0-1) against the Indians' Stan Williams (9-7).

Rookie Golf Pro Leading Classic

UPI Sports Writer

HARRISON, N.Y. (UPI)—Rookie pro Bob Murphy, halfway home to the $50,000 first prize in the world's richest golf tournament, had to borrow a dollar to celebrate his two-stroke lead in the Westchester Classic.

Brushing off an ominous threat from the world's best golfers and a double bogey on his next-to-last hole, Murphy shot a three-under-par 69 Friday for a 36-hole total of 133. This enabled him to double his cushion over the field of 79 survivors for today's third round.

But despite the small fortune that may be awaiting him on Sunday, in the second renewal of this $250,000 classic, Murphy had to borrow the money to buy a beer in the clubhouse when he couldn't find his wallet at the end of the round.

Nicklaus Threatening

Defending champion Jack Nicklaus, firing a 68 in quest of his third consecutive tour victory, was in threatening position at 135 along with PGA titlist Julius Boros, Dan Sikes, Rives McBee and Dale Douglass.

Rockford Speedway Will Hold a Corn Boil

Rockford Speedway President Hugh Deery will celebrate his birthday this year by holding a 4,000-ear corn boil at the track this Saturday evening from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. along with the regular program of late-model stock-car racing. Besides getting a free dinner, fans will be able to follow the progress of Red Gates' challenge to take over Vaughn Gerke's number two place in season point standings. Making an impressive showing in the last two feature races, Gates has pulled within four points of Gerke, who has suffered very bad luck since winning the mid-season championship three weeks ago.

Jim Birks of Rockford may be the late-model driver to watch for the last part of the season, since he shocked everyone by being fastest qualifier last Saturday after a several-week absence from racing.

On Friday the super-modified stock cars ran a special 40-lap feature race to make up for last week's rain-out of the main event. Point leader Johnny Reimer of Caledonia, Wis., was seriously challenged on a wheel-to-wheel basis by Jim Sullivan of Antioch for the first time all year last week. So it may be that the long race will show who is the better driver.

Wayne Yale of Beloit, Wis., continues to lead in roadrunner points after last week's weird circumstances with all five point

Boros, improving his game at the age of 48 and shaking off a sore back, had a second-round 63, as did Douglass. McBee, aided by a pair of eagles and three pills to offset a thyroid condition, shot 66 and Sikes, runnerup here last year, had a 70.

Five more pros were in strong contention at 136, including Art Wall, Bobby Nichols and Orville Moody, making his first circuit tour after 14 years in the Army. Jacky Cupit, who had the tournament's low round of 63 Friday, was in a group of four at 137.

Murphy, with six birdies to accompany the double bogey and a bogey, said he didn't have a bad round but was unhappy with his one bad hole. The double bogey came on the par-four, 456-yard eighth, his 17th hole of the round, which he began in the back nine, when his drive landed in an old ball divot and he eventually three-putted.

Asked if the double bogey would affect his play in the third round, Murphy replied: "It won't upset me tomorrow but if I lose the tournament by one stroke then I'll be upset."

Murphy, who is accompanied around the course by his bride of less than four months, Gail, admitted it was very hard to maintain the lead in a tournament for all four rounds. But he added that he wasn't ready to throw back the two strokes.

Nicklaus said that in general, he played a good round, although he missed out on a few near birdies. His score of 135 was one better than he had at the midway point last year when he went on to beat Sikes by a stroke.

SPORTS BRIEFS

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (UPI)—A team of American boys from the U.S. Air Force base at Weisbaden, Germany, will be the European entry in the Little League World Series next week.

BALTIMORE (UPI)—Leroy Ellis, a 6-foot-11 center who averaged 12.4-points a game last season, was signed Thursday to a three year contract by the Baltimore Bullets of the National Basketball Association.

Bullet owner Abe Pollin also announced that he plans to renegotiate rookie star Earl Monroe's two-year contract after it was reported that Monroe might jump to the rival American Basketball Association.

Detroit's Ace Hurler Stops Red Sox Cold

By FRED DOWN

UPI Sports Writer

Denny McLain has No. 25 safely tucked away and Ken Harrelson, who is cutting quite a few figures of his own this season, is the first to admit the Detroit Tigers' ace pitcher has everybody's number.

PGA Split Is Final

PALM BEACH GARDENS, Fla. (AP) — The split between the Professional Golfers Association and the touring pros apparently is final.

The Executive Committee of the PGA, at a special meeting Friday, abolished the PGA Tournament Committee and announced it had assumed complete control of the tour "for all time."

Gardner Dickinson, Jack Nicklaus, Frank Beard and Doug Ford were player members of the tournament committee. They are among the rebel players who have set up a rival organization to conduct a tour of their own, starting next year.

Max Elbin, PGA president, said the tournament committee was abolished because of the players' rejection of any chance of compromise.

Elbin said the players had demanded "full and complete authority over the tour" and refused to submit the question to arbitration.

"The PGA could never accept this demand," Elbin asserted. "The notion of a PGA tour in which the PGA has no voice is an impossibility if the public interest is to be protected."

Joe Black of Dallas will take over as tournament manager, Elbin said, "no later than the start of the Thunderbird Classic, Aug. 29 in Clifton, N.J." He said the present PGA field staff and television representatives will be retained.

The PGA president declared a new tournament committee will be appointed shortly and will include player representatives.

"If I had to bat against that guy every day I wouldn't be here," said the Boston Red Sox star. "I'd be back home in Kansas City looking for a job."

McLain, who raised his record to 25-3 with a 4-0 victory over the Red Sox Friday night and now seems likely to become the major leagues' first 30-game winner since Dizzy Dean in 1934, had struck out Harrelson with two out and runners on second and third in the sixth inning to get out of his most serious jam of the night.

"I still rate our Jim Lonborg No. 1," said Harrelson. "I say McLain is No. 2 and Bob Gibson of the St. Louis Cardinals is No. 3. After that, you can shake 'em out of trees."

Seven Straight

McLain, who can reach the 30-mark by being a .500-pitcher in the 10 to 12 starts remaining to him this season, was staked to a 2-0 lead on Al Kaline's two-run homer in the third inning Friday night and went on to strike out nine and walk one enroute to his seventh straight victory and sixth shutout.

The Tigers added two runs against reliever Al Lyle in the eighth on Dick McAuliffe's triple, a wild pitch, Mickey Stanley's infield hit, a walk and Norm Cash's single.

The Minnesota Twins beat the Baltimore Orioles 5-2, the Cleveland Indians shaded the Chicago White Sox 4-3 in 12 innings, the New York Yankees edged the Oakland Athletics 2-1 and the Washington Senators defeated the California Angels 4-2 in other American League games.

In the National League, the Atlanta Braves whipped the St. Louis Cardinals 5-1, the Cincinnati Reds outsluged the Chicago Cubs 11-7, the San Francisco Giants topped the Philadelphia Phillies 7-5, the Los Angeles Dodgers downed the Pittsburgh Pirates 8-4 and the Houston Astros beat the New York Mets 3-1.

Jim Kaat doubled in three runs in the second inning and struck out 12 batters to square his record at 9-9 for the Twins and deal them a loss which dropped them eight games behind the Tigers. Kaat's double came with two out in the second after singles by Tony Oliva and Ted Uhlaender and an intentional walk to Bob Allison filled the bases.

Indians Win

Lou Johnson singled off reliever Hoyt Wilhelm with the bases filled and one out in the 12th inning to give the Indians their victory over the White Sox.

Roy White doubled home Jake Gibbs, who had singled, from second base in the sixth inning broke a 1-1 tie and gave Al Downing his first victory of the year.

Joe Coleman went 7-2-3 in his ninth game for the Senators, whose four runs were unearned as a result of three California errors.

Wallick Brothers

HANOVER, N.H. — Dartmouth's football twins, Randy and Rick Wallick, will continue their brother act. Both have been pencilled in as starters as Coach Bob Blackman prepares for the opening of football practice on Sept. 1.

Randy, the 1968 captain, is slated for the right end position — a spot he held down last fall. With 267 minutes played last fall only two men saw more action for the Indians. He caught 13 passes for 176 yards and a touchdown last fall. His best afternoon was against Harvard in a 23-21 victory. He took in 4 passes.

Rick is slated for the defensive left halfback position. He was playing well last year and coming into his own when he was injured in the Harvard game and forced to sit out the balance of the season.

The brother act last fall was at its best against Pennsylvania in a 23-0 victory for the Indians. Randy took a 36-yard touchdown pass from Bill Koenig in the first period to open the scoring. Rick fielded a punt just 58 seconds later and scored after a 59-yard return.

This fall the Indians will take aim at their sixth Ivy League championship since the league was formalized in 1956. Rick and Randy Wallick will play significant roles in the Indians' fortunes as they hope to improve on last fall's 7-2 record.
